WHAT: 2014 Duty to God and Country Prayer Breakfast

WHERE: Wicomico Youth and Civic Center, Salisbury MD

WHEN: Veteran's Day, Tuesday November 11th, Doors open at 6:45am

This year's keynote speaker will be Major General James A. Adkins, Adjutant General of Maryland. The breakfast is held to honor and celebrate the 12th Point of the Scout Law - "A Scout is reverent" as well as honor local veterans. Chris Eccleston, Eagle Scout and US Navy Veteran is hosting as the event chairmen.

Background

Sir Baden Powell, founder of Scouting said "Duty to God is an integral part of the Scouting program. There is no religious side to the Scout movement. The whole of it is based on religion; that is on becoming aware of God and His Service."

For over 104 years, Scouts have declared to do their best in their duty to God and their country in the Scout Oath. The twelfth point of the Scout Law is to always be reverent. There are currently 10,000 Scouts on the Delmarva Peninsula.
